A stylized illustration of Spider-Man and Black Widow in a romantic embrace. Spider-Man, on the left, is shown from the chest up, wearing his iconic red and blue suit with white web patterns. He has a red mask with white eye lenses. Black Widow, on the right, is shown from the waist up, wearing her black tactical suit with gold-colored web patterns. She has long, dark hair and is looking down at Spider-Man with a gentle smile. They are standing on a rooftop or balcony at night, with a city skyline and a large, ornate building visible in the background. The lighting is soft and romantic, with a blue and purple color palette. A white starburst speech bubble is positioned on the left side of the image, containing text. The overall style is reminiscent of comic book art.
